A. A. Farland Artist Grand No. 2 $1995.00; sn. 751, ca. 1900s. a very early, Farland banjo with 12-1/2 inch wooden rim showing saw cuts on the inside. Unusual bracket system which loops under the lower edge of the rim. Five piece maple neck with ornate, floral inlay in the peghead and the fingerboard. The banjo has a 28-1/2 inch scale and 29 frets in all including the large cantilevered extension. The rim still retains the Farland patented metal head and paper label inside. Farland was a renowned performer and teacher, his banjos are great classical instruments that also have a fine tone for frailing style., HSC
