Angelina Baker
Lives on the village green
The way I've always loved her
Beats all you've ever seen

Her father was the miller
They called him Uncle Sam
Never will forget him
Unless I take a dram

Chorus:
Angeline the baker
Her age is forty three
I gave her candy by the peck
She won't marry me

Last time I seen her
Was at the county fair
Her father run me almost home
Tell her to stay there

I never will marry
No matter how I try
Said I'd marry Angeline
Now 20 years gone by

Chorus
I went to see my Angeline
They told me she was gone
Left me here to weep a tear
And play on the old jawbone
