From Lonesome Ace Stringband Facebook post Dec. 3, 2021:

"Here's a tune that John learned from Andrew Small, who told John he'd learned it from the great Mike Bryant (beyond that, we're not sure where this comes from, but I'm confident one of our more folky friends might chime in with some genealogy). Wherever it came from, add it to the list of great Billy in the Lowland/Lowground tunes out there! Looking forward to playing a few gigs around Ontario with John this weekend (Friday night at The Dakota Tavern and Saturday at the The Gorge Cinema in Elora).

Have a great weekend everyone. Be happy and safe.
