Danville Girl – Lyrics

When I went down to Danville
I got stuck on a Danville girl
You bet your life she's out of sight
Well, she wears those Danville curls

She wears the hair on the back of her head
Like the high-toned people do
The very next train that leaves this town
Gonna bid that girl adieu

I don't know why I love that girl
For she never cared for me
But still my mind is on that girl
Wherever she may be

Look up, look down that lonesome road
Hang down your head and cry
The best of friends must part some time
So why can't you and I

It's 40 miles through the rock
And it's 60 through the sand
I'll tell you the story of
Many a poor-married man

'Cause I went down to Danville
I got stuck on a Danville girl
You bet your life she's out of sight
Well, she wears those Danville curls
