Fall on my Knees – Lyrics

Well, I fall on my knees and I pray to thee,
Come along and stand by me, little girl,
Come along and stand by me.

Look up, look down, that lonesome old road,
Hang down your little head and cry, little girl,
Hang down your little head and cry.

There's more than one, Lord,
There's more than two,
No other little woman like you, little girl.
No other little woman like you.

I wish to the Lord that I'd never been born,
Or died when I was young, little girl,
Or died when I was young.

Then I never would have kissed your red ruby cheeks,
Or heard your lying tongue, little girl,
Or heard your lying tongue.

You told me one, you told me two,
You told me ten thousand lies, little girl,
You told me ten thousand lies.

You've told me more lies than there's stars in the skies,
You'll never get to heaven when you die, little girl,
You'll never get to heaven when you die.

Well, my suitcase is packed and I'm never coming home,
Goodbye, little woman, I'm gone, I'm gone,
Goodbye, little woman, I'm gone.
