G

A diagram of a guitar neck illustrating a scale pattern. The neck has six strings and a 12th-fret marker. Fingerings are indicated above the strings: 12-12 (string 6), 11-8 (string 5), 9 (string 4), 7-9 (string 3), 9 (string 2), 0 (string 1), and 0 (string 0). String numbers are shown below the strings. A curved arrow labeled $\frac{1}{2}$ points from the 12th fret on string 6 down to the 8th fret on string 5. Another curved arrow labeled $\frac{1}{2}$ points from the 8th fret on string 3 up to the 11th fret on string 2. A curved arrow labeled $\frac{1}{4}$ points from the 11th fret on string 1 down to the 8th fret on string 0.
