V1 We started out from Bern One Sunny August morn
 V2 Two miles up we lost John and the rations fell below
 V3 Now here I am a'dying upon the Matterhorn

There was just the four of us Against the Matterhorn
 Al and Bill are lying beneath an avalanche of snow
 Not a grave to lie in or a thing to keep me warm

There was Albert the Australian and John the Irishman
 Now here I am alone and I know I cannot stop
 The queen would surely knight me if I could make it back down

Bill and I from Britain mad-dogs in the sun
 Ten more yards in front of me before I reach the top
 But its closer here to heaven than is back to the ground
