Sally Come Down the Middle – Lyrics (non-traditional)

[Verse 1]

Was the evening, I recall
Heard a ruckus in the hall
Looking in, I heard a call
"Oh, Sally come down the middle"

[Chorus]

Sally come up and down,
Twist your heel around,
The band is playing for the town,
Oh Sally come down the middle

[Verse 2]

Hear the fiddles playing fine
Clap your hands to keep the time
Find a partner, form a line
Then Sally come down the middle

[Verse 3]

Listen to the old banjo
Circle right and round you go
Do-si-do your partner so,
Then Sally come down the middle.

[Verse 4]

Moon's behind the hill,
Still we dance with right good will,
There's no standing still,
Sally come down the middle

[Verse 5]

It'll soon be time to clear
Morning light is drawing near,
Give the band a final cheer,
Then Sally come down the middle
