Walk on Boy – Lyrics

Verse 1:

I was born one morning
Rain was pouring down
Heard my mammy say to my pappy
Let's call him John Henry Brown
Walk on, boy

Chorus:

Walk on down the road
And there ain't nobody in the whole wide world's Gonna help you carry your load
Just walk on, boy

Verse 2:

One day my daddy told me
Some advice I'll give to you
Find a good woman and treat her good
And she'll be good to you
Walk on, boy

Verse 3:

I left my mammy and pappy
Round about the age of ten
Got me a job working on the levee
Toting water for the steamboat men
Walk on, boy

Verse 4:

It's the rich man makes the money
Poor boy does the work
Rich man lives mighty high on the holler
The poor boy eat up the dirt
Walk on, boy

Verse 5:

If anyone should ask you
Who's that fella Brown?
Tell him I'm the boy that left his hammer smoking
When I beat the old steam drill down
Walk on, boy
